Position Description

River Design Group, Inc. (RDG) is seeking a dependable and motivated Construction Supervisor to join our Whitefish, Montana office on a part-time seasonal basis (July-November). RDG is an interdisciplinary consulting firm specializing in ecosystem restoration throughout the Western U.S. The Construction Supervisor will be responsible for overseeing the implementation of RDG designs for river restoration, dam removal and fish passage projects. This position will require travel and use of a personal vehicle for working on projects in remote locations throughout Montana, Idaho, Washington and Wyoming.

Visit RDG’s website at www.riverdesigngroup.com to learn more about our team and services.

Qualifications

- Background in natural resources including engineering, hydrology, geomorphology, ecology, biology or other sciences.
- Experience in construction supervision and management of contractors.
- Survey experience including expertise with survey grade GPS, total station and laser level equipment.
- Ability to interpret construction plan sets and specifications and communicate design specifications to contractors.
- Ability to walk and carry equipment for long distances in the field in varied terrain and weather conditions.

Responsibilities

- Perform daily construction oversight tasks to ensure compliance with design specifications and permit requirements.
- Use survey equipment to measure quantities and document construction compliance with specified horizontal and vertical tolerances.
- Coordinate with construction contractors to correct deficiencies.
- Maintain communication and coordinate frequently with designated RDG Project Manager and office staff.
- Produce daily reports to document construction progress and record daily construction activities.

This position is a seasonal full-time, hourly position with a typical 40-hour work week. Reimbursement will be provided for lodging, per diem and personal vehicle use. Compensation will be established based on qualifications and experience. RDG offers employer-paid medical and dental insurance during the employment period.

To apply, please submit a resume and cover letter via email to info@riverdesigngroup.com

Position open until filled. Start date will be July 2022.
